PLENARY SESSIONS & CELEBRATION // 12 - 15 March 2009, Singapore Expo, The MAX Pavilion
ENCOUNTER SESSIONS // 15 - 17 March 2009, TOUCHCENTRE & TOUCH Community Theatre

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

In his book, “Dream and You Will Win the World”, Pastor Cesar Castellanos wrote, “One night, as I walked along the shore, God gave me a word that would transform my life and ministry... ‘the members of the church you will pastor will be numerous as the stars in the sky and the sand of the seashore, for you will be unable to count the multitude.’ ”

A month later, on 19 March 1983, the world-renowned church with close to 40,000 cells known today as International Charismatic Mission (ICM) was born. ICM has since impacted many pastors and churches around the world with the G12 vision, and a renewed hope for fathering the multitudes. Come and be inspired by the founder of ICM and the G12 movement, Pastor Cesar Castellanos. Your own life and ministry will be transformed as you believe God for the multitudes and the transformation of your nation.

Be enthralled by keynote speaker and host, Apostle Lawrence Khong, who is on the international team of Pastor Cesar, and responsible for coordinating the G12 vision in Asia. Listen to his awesome testimony as a pulpit minister on how God finally gave him a breakthrough after seven years, as he walked humbly by faith into the arena of the Arts and Entertainment. The theme of this conference is “Give Me the Multitudes!”, which is the title of a new book that he wrote in 2008 concerning this journey. Bring home with you the hope of fulfilling a dream that is bigger than yourself and your church as you listen to Apostle Khong’s magnificent obsession on the Kingdom of God.

Catch the Delirious? band in action as they lead us in worship at the conference and the Sunday celebration. As some of you may be aware, they will be disbanding at the end of 2009! For more than a decade, they have toured the world and played at huge Christian music festivals. Every of their album releases, including the latest (their twelfth album), “Kingdom of Comfort,” has received raving reviews. On the final night of the conference, they will lead us in an outreach concert.

We trust God that many hearts will be touched through their anointed music, songs and the preaching of God’s Word. Don’t miss out on the legendary Delirious? band!

Over and above an anointed worship and concert, come and receive a powerful impartation from God’s visionaries on the implementation of the G12 strategy in the strategic areas of influence to disciple the nations. Don’t miss this milestone conference that will leave an indelible mark and cry in your heart, “Give Me the Multitudes!”

If you have never participated in the optional Encounter with God retreat, do not miss out on the greatest impulse of the G12 vision.

Come and experience the revelations of the Cross after the plenary sessions. Receive freedom, healing and deliverance from bondages of sin, past inner hurts and generational curses, plus a host of other blessings to run with a clear G12 vision.

Attending both the conference plenary and encounter sessions have helped many delegates to receive God’s blessings and to run with the G12 vision.

“My husband and I enjoy our marriage life very much, but we have no kids. Through attending the Conference and Encounter sessions, Jesus has revealed to me a new direction: “You can be a spiritual mother”. Thank you, Father, for this new revelation!” – M. Kumagaz, Encounter Delegate

---

“I found out that the Vision of G12 is more like a real family in Christ. It makes us want to sacrifice our lives for one another just like Jesus has done for His disciples and for us. I also realized that G12 can get along very well with the Thai culture. It releases women to serve side by side together with men. Therefore I opened my heart to accept and receive the G12 Vision.” – Pastor Sangwien Duangkham, Siam Bangkok Church

SPEAKERS

Pastor Cesar Castellanos

In 1983, God gave him the greatest revelation that changed his life and ministry. The Lord said to him, "Dream, because dreams are the language of my Spirit. The church you will be shepherding will be as countless as the stars in the sky, or as the sand by the seashore". Pastor Cesar Castellanos went on to found "Misión Carismática Internacional" (MCI) in Bogota, Colombia, in March 1983, starting with only eight people in his living room.

Pastor Cesar dared to believe God who said that if he would work with his wife, he would have the world. God gave him the rhema word in Genesis 12:2-3. Like Abraham of old, he believes the Lord that he can become a father of multitudes. Today, MCI has close to 40,000 cells.

The revolutionary strategies that the Lord revealed to him for the multiplication of His church are widely known today as the G12 vision, or the Government of Twelve.

The mission of Pastors Cesar and his wife Claudia is to fulfill God's command in Matthew 28:19 to "go and make disciples of all nations...". It is their desire that every believer becomes a leader who will share the gospel of Jesus Christ with the lost, and reproduce in them the character of Jesus Christ.

Renowned pastors around the world have embraced the vision and became part of the International Twelve of Pastor Cesar. They serve together with Pastor Cesar in imparting the G12 vision and making deep impact in the nations where God has given them apostolic influences.

Apostle Lawrence Khong and Rev (Dr) Nina Khong

Apostle Lawrence Khong is the Founding Senior Pastor of Faith Community Baptist Church. Founded in 1986, FCBC has since grown to become a 10,000-strong church committed to outreach, discipleship and community service in Singapore. He was commissioned as an Apostle by Dr Peter Wagner of the International Coalition of Apostles in 2000. Widely acclaimed as an anointed speaker and cell church pioneer, Apostle Lawrence has spoken in numerous missions and cell conferences all over the world.

In 2002, he led FCBC to transit into the G12 vision which focuses on helping every believer to become a father of multitudes. He is one of Pastor Cesar Castellanos' (Founder of the G12 movement) International Twelve, and is committed to bring the G12 vision to churches in Asia.

Apostle Lawrence is particularly passionate about reclaiming the contemporary mass media in all its popular forms. Reflecting this passion, he established Gateway Entertainment, an independent entertainment production company. Through it, he has produced many highly entertaining mega-magic productions like 'The Spook Show', 'Magic of Love', and very recently, 'MAGICBOX', which made a highly successful run at Singapore's premier arts and entertainment venue, The Esplanade – Theatres on the Bay. The show garnered moving accolades from the audience, and brought phenomenal reviews from critics within Singapore's media.

In late 2008, God once again spoke to Apostle Lawrence, preparing him and his church to enter another phase of their calling. This exciting new vision is a call to serve the nations by effecting community transformation in Singapore and gateway cities in Asia. In his immediate obedience, Apostle Lawrence is now helming the LoveSingapore movement again, a network of churches that desires to transform Singapore for His glory.

Apostle Lawrence holds a Master of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary, and a Bachelor of Business Administration from the National University of Singapore. He and his wife, Rev (Dr) Nina Khong, have four children – Priscilla, Michelle, Anthony and Daniel, and a grandson, Isaac.

Rev (Dr) Nina Khong heads the Women's Network in FCBC. A medical doctor by training, Rev Nina left her practice as a general practitioner to become a full time pastor and staff at FCBC in 2002, spending much of her time growing the Women's Network and assisting Apostle Lawrence in the leadership of the church. At Gateway Entertainment, she not only plays an integral role in its marketing and operations, she is pivotal to the success of its magic shows, the latest being the highly acclaimed MAGICBOX, where she was one of the Executive Producers.
